A. Design Review 12-09; Pho Season; 2222 Foothill Blvd. #B; new internally illuminated wall sign.

Director Stanley gave an overview of the proposal and summary of the last Design Commission meeting when the item was first considered. Staff could make the findings for the proposal. The Commission had continued the item in order for the business owner to be present for a discussion about colors for the proposed sign.

Andy Hong (business owner) spoke about other signs in the shopping center.

The Commission preferred the use of the orange colored letters with white returns and the green color of the symbol as shown on the proposed plans and not the red letter colors actually proposed. The sign would stand out more from the other signs in the center.

M/S/C Roberts/Hoopes to approve. Unanimous 4-0.
